Sciences Po Bordeaux

Pillars of excellence

- A highly competitive institution (« Grande École »)
- A pluridisciplinary approach to education
- Developed international networks
- A major research institution in political science
Sciences Po Bordeaux

A highly competitive faculty within the university

- 1 of 9 Political Studies Institutes in France (created in 1948)
- Highly renowned founding fathers: Maurice Duverger, Jacques Ellul, Jean Stoetzel, Yves Renouard...
- Located on the Bordeaux (Pessac) campus since 1967
- One of the most selective admissions exams in France
- Taking innovative steps towards social diversity
- From a public service to a governance school
- Nationally and internationally active Alumni network

Some Sciences Po Bordeaux alumni

- Public sector: Bernard Boucault, Michel Prada,…
- Private sector: Nicolas de Tavernost, Walter Butler,…
- Media: Anne-Sophie Lapix, Christophe Hondelatte,…
- Politics: Bernard Cazeneuve, Noël Mamère,…
Sciences Po Bordeaux
A pluridisciplinary approach to education

- Well-rounded, marketable graduates
- Multidisciplinary: Social Sciences & Humanities, Political Science, Law, Economy & Management, History & Geography, Modern Languages
- Two compulsory Modern Languages, including English
- Student-centred approach to education: small group seminars and debates
- 55 permanent professors and more than 300 instructors

Facts 2008-2009
- Undergraduate students 750
- Graduate students (Master’s level) 700
- Exam preparation (concours) 200
- Doctoral and Post-graduate students 150
Second year abroad

1st institute to create joint degrees with partner universities including 6 joint programmes with Stuttgart (Germany), Turin (Italy), Cardiff (Wales), Granada (Spain) and Coimbra (Portugal), Casablanca (Morroco)

4 joint Masters degrees with Laval [Québec, Canada], Moscow [Russia], Kingston [Jamaica] and with Washington State University [United States]

First Franco-German Doctoral College in the Social Sciences

More than a dozen courses taught by international visiting professors

25% of courses taught in English

Facts 2013-2014

• More than 300 students abroad
• More than 300 foreign students studying at Sciences Po Bordeaux
• A growing number of doctoral dissertations completed through an international co-supervision
Sciences Po Bordeaux

A major research institution in political science

- A prominent research institution for political science in France
- 2 internationally recognized research teams: Centre Emile Durkheim & Les Afriques dans le, with CNRS and FNSP (Fondation Nationale des Sciences Politiques) support
- Diversified research expertise: Political Sociology, Comparative Politics, Public Policy, Territorial Policy, International Relations, European Studies, African and South American Studies
- An associated European Research group jointly managed in collaboration with the University of Stuttgart (Germany): CODESE - Comparing Democracies in Europe

Facts 2013-2014
- 2 joint laboratories with CNRS and FNSP
- 12 Research Directors CNRS-FNSP
- 11 Research Fellows CNRS-FNSP
Comparative political science and sociology supervision of the National Centre for Scientific Research (CNRS).

five fields of study:
(1) INEQUALITIES - Comparative Research on Experiences of Inequality;
(2) IDENTIFICATION - Comparative Research on Identification Processes;
(3) MARKETS - Comparative Research on the Political Organization of Markets;
(4) INSTITUTIONS - Comparative Research on Public Institutions and their personnel;
(5) INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS - Comparative Research on International Negotiations and Trans-nationalization Dynamics.

Centre Emile Dukheim
A major research institution in political science

Facts 2013-2014

• 2 joint laboratories with CNRS and FNSP
• 12 Research Directors CNRS-FNSP
• 11 Research Fellows CNRS-FNSP
Centre Emile Dukheim

A major research institution in political science

- 85 doctoral students,
- 14 full-time researchers (10 CNRS researchers, 4 researchers at the National Foundation for Political Science),
- 32 lecturers
- 14 administrative personnel (secretariat, management, publishing, documentation, communication, quantitative analyses) and 1 research fellow.
(Research professor, CNRS-Emile Durkheim Centre and Sciences Po Bordeaux) is a political scientist and an Africanist.

He has extensively published on the interactions between regionalism, regionalisation and globalisation in Africa. His research also involves the discussion of inter-regionalism (Europe-Africa relations) and cross-border interactions.

BON DE COMMANDE - RIPC 2013/3
ECPR 2013

Je soussigné(e)
NOM ..............................................................................
Prénom .............................................................................
Institution ...........................................................................
N° TVA ..............................................................................
Rue ................................................ N° .... Bte
Code postal .............. Localité
Pays ...................................... Tel.
e-mail .................................................................

Pré-commande ..... ex. de la RIPC 2013/3 à 20 € par n° au lieu de 26 €.
En cas de commande par e-mail ou par téléphone, préciser : code ECPR 2013.
+ Frais de port :
☐ Benelux et France : gratuit
☐ Reste de l'UE : 4,95 € pour le premier article et 1,00 € par article suppl.
☐ Reste du monde (y compris Dom Tom) : 9,90 € par article et 2,00 €
par article supplémentaire
☐ Paiement à la réception de la facture
☐ J'autorise la société De Boeck Services à débiter ma carte du montant de la facture.
Carte n° .............................................................................. n° CCV ........ (Les trois derniers numéros de votre carte au dos, pour une meilleure sécurité des transactions)
VISA ☐ MASTER CARD ☐ / Date de validité ..........................

À retombrer à
De Boeck Services • Fond Jean-Pâques, 4 • 1348 Louvain-la-Neuve •
Belgique • tél. +32 (0) 10 48 25 70 • fax +32 (0) 10 48 25 19
abo@deboeckservices.com

Retrouver la RIPC en texte intégral sur www.cairn.info
Senior lecturer at Sciences po Bordeaux and a research fellow at the Centre Emile Durkheim.

Main research interest concerns public policies in the Russian and Post-Soviet countries’ economies and their impact on actors’ practices and representations.

Former director of The French University College in Saint Peterburg (2 years) the coordinator of a double masters’ degree program with Peoples friendship university

https://sciencespobordeaux.academia.edu/CarolineDufy
Assistant Professor in Sociology (Université de Bordeaux / France) and Research Fellow (Centre Emile Durkheim / France), former Director of the French-Belarusian Centre of Political Sciences and European Studies (Minsk, Belarus; 2009-2012).

His research focuses on everyday life under the Soviet and Post-Soviet Dictatorship in Belarus.

Doctoral Students

A major research institution in political science

- Katia Pechenkina (double Masters’ degree program, Centre Emile Durkheim)

- Glenn Mainguy (Centre Emile Durkheim)

- and Masters’ degree students (Moscow-Bordeaux programme)
Sciences Po Bordeaux

Pillars of excellence

Thank you for your attention!